WHAT KAREERA IS

A practice partner for the spoken interview

Most applicants for corporate and BPO roles don't fail on what they know. They blank in English in front of a manager, with no one to practice with beforehand.

- Four ways to interview: video call, phone call, answer out loud, or type
- Follow-up questions when an answer is too thin
- A score and a rewritten answer after every question, with up to three retries

WHO IT'S FOR

Fresh grads and career switchers going for corporate roles

- Business and finance
- Sales and marketing
- HR and admin
- Customer service
- Technical support
- Virtual assistant

If a job isn't listed, candidates paste the job post and the interview is built from it.

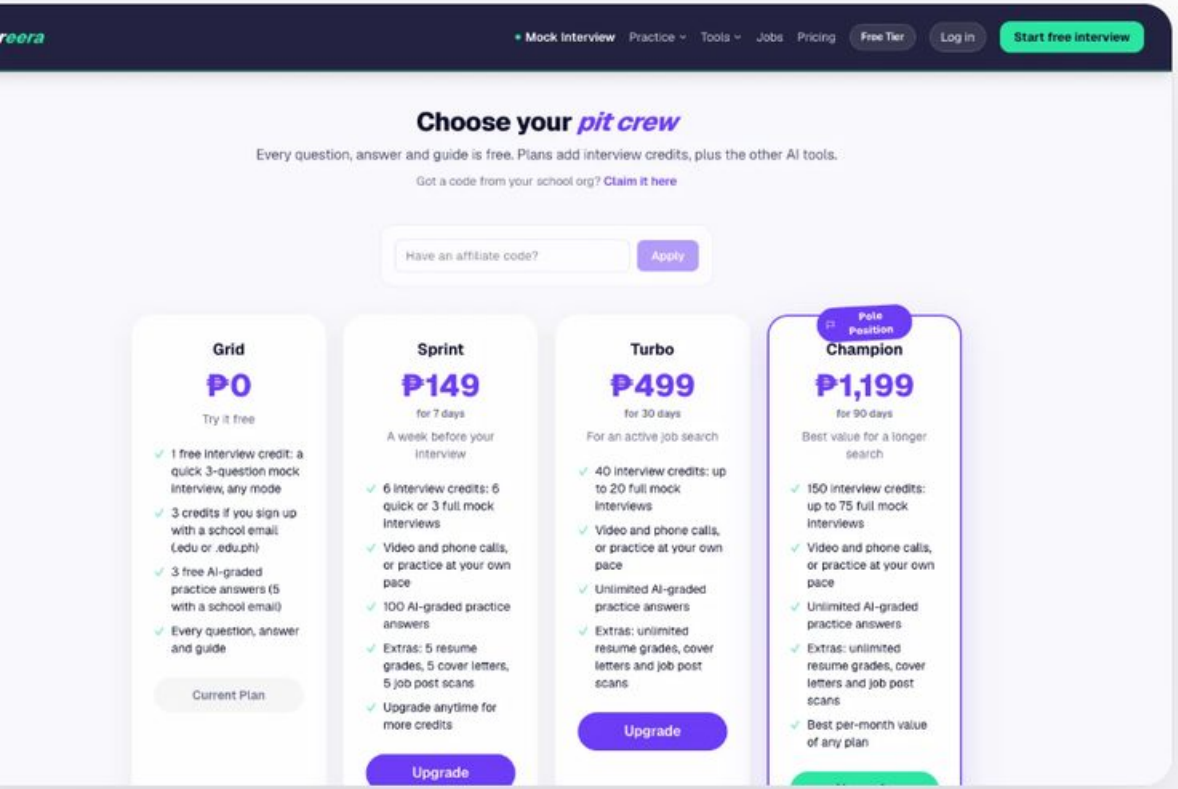

We reach them through student organizations, Facebook job groups and short-form video.

PLANS

Free to start, priced from real cost data

Paid plans run up to ₱1,199 for 90 days, with a ₱99 top-up. A quick interview uses one credit and a full interview uses two.

Every speech, voice and model call is logged against the interview it belongs to, so prices follow what each interview actually costs to run.
